DIED IN OKLAHOMA.

Mother of Mrs. Howard McCommon of This City Died Sunday Night.

Mrs. Howard McCommon received a message Monday morning conveying the news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jester, in Claremore, Okla., Sunday night, October 22. Mrs. Jester went to Claremore about two months ago to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. F. H. Boyd. About a month ago she fell and broke one of her limbs. The shock was too great for one of her years to overcome, and she grew gradually weaker until her death.

Mr. and Mrs. McCommon left Monday evening for Marshall, Mo., where the burial will take place Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jester's former home was at Marshall, and her husband's death occurred there.

Mrs. Jester was 85 years old last April. She had been making her home in Maryville with her daughter for three or four years, and she has been in failing health for some time. She was born in Madison county, Kentucky, and was a daughter of John Saunders, a pioneer merchant of Buchanan county. Her brother, James H. Saunders of this city, is one of the pioneer merchants of Nodaway county. She went to Buchanan county when a child and was married in that county to her husband, S. M. Jester, who settled in Marshall, Saline county. She is survived by one son, John B. Jester of Marshall; Mrs. Howard McCommon of this city, Mrs. J. D. Lotsteich of Butler, Mo.; Mrs. T. R. Bell of Marshall; Mrs. James O'Dell of Natton, Mo., and Mrs. F. H. Boyd of Claremore, Okla. One son, J. A. Jester, who was a well known merchant of Maryville, died a number of years ago.

PROSPERITY IS SHOWN.

Missouri Banks, According to Swanger, Are Growing Stronger.

State Bank Commissioner John E. Swanger last week completed the compilation of banks and trust companies of Missouri under the call made on these institutions for the figures at the close of business September 1. He makes interesting comparisons with the statements of these banks and trust companies made on November 10, 1910, and finds that there is much reason for congratulation on the vast improvement indicated.

Among other things noted is an increase in loans, discounts and investments and an increase in individual deposits which he thinks is a remarkable showing of business prosperity and growth. Savings deposits also show a most gratifying increase. Another indication that attests the growth of good banking in Missouri is a great decrease in overdrafts, which Commissioner Swanger declares is in line with the showing made by his comparisons.

A most remarkable condition is shown in the statement that not a dollar has been lost to depositors in state banks and trust companies in Missouri during the past four years. Commissioner Swanger says that this record is unexcelled by any state in the Union.

FOLK FOR PRIMARY

SANDERS WANTS STATE COMMITTEE TO MAKE CALL.

WOULD HOLD IN FEBRUARY

Leaders Express Confidence That Result Would Justify Claim That Missouri is for Folk.

Joseph W. Folk, in a signed statement issued Saturday by Lon Sanders, president of the Missouri Democratic league, the Folk-for-president organization, practically insisted on a primary convention to settle beyond any doubt the preference of the Missouri voters for Speaker Champ Clark and the former governor.

The Folk plan contemplates a legal primary convention, to be held throughout the state, as early as possible after the meeting of the national Democratic committee on January 8, 1912.

"We not only welcome," says Lon Sanders, in his written statement, "but urge the state committee to act promptly after January 8, when the national committee meets, and at the earliest practical date thereafter issue the call for the state convention, or primary, to select delegates to the national convention."

The Folk leaders express the greatest confidence in the outcome of such a contest. While they contend that the indorsement given Folk at the convention a year ago is binding, they say that the Democratic voters of Missouri are overwhelmingly for Folk for president, and that the truth of this view will be manifested when the convention is held.

Objection is made to a primary election in December on the ground that it would be impossible to conduct such an election or convention. There is no law under which such a contest could be legally held, say the Folk adherents. It would afford a chance for ballot box stuffing, and could not be held under proper police regulations, and no legal expression would result from such a test of strength.

After the national committee meets early in January, however, and authorizes the calling of conventions to instruct the delegates to the national convention, the chairman of the Democratic state committee could call the convention, and it could be held at any time after that date. While such conventions are not usually held until May or June, say the Folk leaders, there would be no objection to the calling of such a convention in February or later.

PASSED 100 MARK

DR. THOMAS LAFAYETTE OF HOPKINS A CENTENARIAN.

WOULDN'T LIVE LIFE OVER

Anxious to Solve the Mysteries Beyond the Grave—Has Lived in County Since 1888.

One hundred years ago last Friday Dr. Thomas Lafayette of Hopkins was born at Leon, France. His father died eight days before he was born and he was reared by his grandfather, Joseph F. Lafayette, an own cousin of the Marquis de Lafayette, who, history tells us, rendered most valuable service to the colonies during the revolutionary war. Dr Lafayette remembers well many visits of the marquis to the home of his grandfather.

The senior Lafayette gave his grandson the advantage of the best schools of France and the young man later entered the Paris Academy of Medicine, where he spent seven years, after which he practiced for ten years in the hospitals of Paris and other leading European cities.

In 1850 Dr. Lafayette came to the United States, locating at Reid's Landing, an Indian mission in Minnesota, where he successfully practiced medimine until the opening of the civil war. At the first call to arms he enlisted with the Fourth Minnesota infantry, being assistant regimental surgeon with rank of captain, and took part in many of the leading battles. He served until the close of the war, receiving an honorable discharge in 1866. He was married in 1858 to Miss Hermine Bifault of St. Francis, Can., who died forty years ago. To this union were born three children—Miss Josephine Lafayette, who now resides at Wayland, N. Y.; Fordyce Lafayette, a practicing physician of Rochester, N. Y., and Thomas Lafayette, Jr., from whom the doctor has not heard for many years and for whom he is constantly worrying. When last heard from Thomas Lafayette was trading in land and cattle in Canada, being reputed wealthy. He mysteriously disappeared a quarter of a century ago and nothing has since been heard of him.

At the close of the war, Dr. Lafayette located at Marrston, Minn., and from there went to St. Louis, where he remained for several years practicing his profession. From there he went to Joplin, Mo., where the cyclone of 1883 did so much damage, among the property lost being the office of Dr. Lafayette, as well as his comprehensive library. After this loss, he made a trip to France, where he remained for a year. On returning to the United States he located at the French colony, near Corning, Ia., and spent considerable money and time improving the conditions existing among his people there at that time. From the colony he came to Hopkins, locating here in 1888.

Dr. Lafayette was unhappily married here some fifteen years or more ago, and was soon afterward granted a divorce by the circuit court of Nodaway county. Since then he has lived alone, with the exception of a housekeeper, in the attractive little cottage that stands just west of the Burlington depot and which is frequently admired by passengers traveling through this city.

Politically, the doctor is a Republican, but of late years has taken no part in politics, and has probably voted his last time. He is the youngest of a family of five children, his two sisters and two brothers having long since crossed the line that divides time from eternity. As to religion, he has none. He was reared a Roman Catholic but long since gave up that faith. He believes in no hell and no devil, declaring that ignorance is the greatest devil.

"Equal freedom, equal duty, equal rights and equal salvation" is his motto, and his theory is that everybody will be saved. Despite his hundred years the doctor is still quite active, both in mind and body, and still does an office practice. He is a great reader and is fully posted on current events. He has made six trips to Europe since he first came to America and has been in several severe storms. He is temperate in all things—has never used tobacco in any form and never drinks anything stronger than wine.

Dr. Lafayette is different from the average human inasmuch as he says he would not want to live his life over again even if it were possible. He is ready and anxious to die—anxious to solve the mysteries beyond the grave. He has given his life to healing the sick and rests in the belief that "he who serves humanity most, serves God best," and is not afraid to die.—St. Joseph Gazette.

WAS 89 YEARS OLD

MRS. MARGARET PARTRIDGE DIED AT RIPE OLD AGE.

HAD LIVED HERE 51 YEARS

Four Children Survive, With the Youngest of Whom She Had Made Her Home Twenty-Five Years.

The funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Partridge, mother of J. Lincoln Partridge, living seven miles northeast of Maryville, who died at the home of her son Friday evening, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Myrtle Tree church, and were largely attended.

Mrs. Partridge was 89 years old at the time of her death and she had enjoyed a good degree of health until her fatal illness came nine weeks ago. She was able to visit her children and among her neighbors and to attend church regularly, and took much interest in life. Paralysis was the cause of her death.

Mrs. Partridge is survived by four children, W. J. Partridge of Wilbur, Wash.; G. W. Partridge of Cherokee, Okla.; Mrs. H. T. Wray of Pickering, and her youngest son, J. L. Partridge, with whom she had made her home for twenty-five years. She was the mother of ten children, two of whom died in infancy in Illinois, before the family moved to Missouri. The other children deceased are Mrs. Adaline Trusty, the mother of Grant Trusty of this city, who died at her home, east of Maryville; Mrs. Margaret VanBuren of Pickering and Mrs. George Ingersoll, who died at her home in Grand Junction, Col.

Mrs. Partridge was born in Bracken county, Kentucky, September 24, 1822. When she was 9 years old her parents moved to Illinois, in Edgar county, where she grew to womanhood, and was married to John R. Partridge on the 13th of February, 1839. In 1885 the family moved to Gentry county, Missouri, and remained there until 1860, when they came to Nodaway county and settled on a farm in the neighborhood in which they died. Mr. Partridge's death occurred sixteen years ago.

Mrs. Partridge was a consistent member of the Protestant M. E. church, and was a member of the Harmony church for many years.

George W. Partridge of Cherokee, Okla., a son of the deceased, arrived Monday noon, also Carl Wray of Guilford, who is a grandson, and F. E. Wood of Seward, Neb., a nephew.

Were in Time for Sunday School.

Judge Shamberger and family, who live twelve miles south of the city, came to Maryville Sunday morning to attend Sunday school at the First M. E. church, and were there when the school opened at 9:30 o'clock. Of course, Judge Shamberger has an automobile, but the fact that he was able to arrive in time for Sunday school in company with his family is a rebuke to the heands of many families in Maryville.

TO ABOLISH TREATING.

The Chicago Record-Herald prints the following editorial:

"That the treating habit is one of the causes of excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors in this country has long been apparent to all who are interested in the drink question. It is, therefore, a matter of public concern that the National German-American Alliance has adopted a resolution calling upon its executive committee to present to the next biennial convention a practical plan of abolishing the custom of treating at public bars.

"The treating habit in most cases is born of generosity or a desire to appear generous. It results in several men taking several drinks each because each thinks he cannot afford to be thought mean or stingy. Many saloon keepers encourage the practice, believing it brings revenue, by 'setting up' a round of drinks occasionally 'on the bar.' Yet there are men, not teetotalers, who avoid drinking in saloons because of the treating habit.

"To bring into use the 'Dutch treat,' as the alliance proposes, may be difficult, but it ought to be brought into use if possible. In Europe the custom is for each man to pay for what he drinks only, and as a result intoxication in public houses is rare."

This is a wise move on the part of the National German-American Alliance. More power to that organization's elbow in its practical effort at reform.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Maryville People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy and other serious troubles. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Maryville proof:

G. W. Hempstead, East First street, Maryville, Mo., says: "When suffering from an extreme sensitiveness in the small of my back, I was advised by a friend to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and they lived up to representations. I have never had any trouble from my back or kidneys since."

Alderman's Greatest Sale of Fine Millinery

The story of this sale is quickly told. It is time for us to reduce our Millinery stock and it is to our advantage to reduce it while there is still a good demand. For we can then clean it up quickly and be in a position to make bargains that will prove intensely interesting to everyone.

Every woman should know, by this time, of our new system of buying and selling Hats. Briefly it is this: For the first time we bought all of our Hats direct from the prominent originators, mainly from New York and Chicago. Our reason for doing this was to get better styles and better values than formerly, since the designers who live and work in the style centers are undoubtedly in a better position to give newer and more up-to-the-minute styles than any trimmer which we could obtain. We got better values by having a standing order and by eliminating at least one, and in many cases two, middle profits.

This innovation has proven a hgge success. Never before have we, or any other Millinery shop in Northwest Missouri, had such an elaborate showing of really new and original Hats. And we were able to price them at least 10 per cent lower than ordinarily.

Every Hat in our stock is reduced in price for this sale. None are held back. Take your choice from our complete stock. The regular prices are on the Hats; the show cards tell the reduced prices.

At regular prices our Hats are not equaled, either as to style or value. At reduced prices they are bargains such sa have rarely been offered.

Come at once and make your selections. Do not delay.

MURDER STARTS RACE TROUBLE

City Attorney of Coweta, Ok., Killed and Two Others Shot.

MUSKOGEE MILITIA CALLED OUT

Negro Pushed White Woman Off Sidewalk and Trouble Commenced—City Short of Guns and Ammunition.

Coweta, Ok., Oct. 23.—D. J. Beavers, city attorney of Coweta, was shot through the head and instantly killed. Steller Thompson and Carmen Oliver, two white men, were shot through the body and may die. Ed suddeth, negro, was shot, arrested strung up to water tank, cut down, jailed, started out of town by officers and shot to death by a mob, while Ed Ruse another black, who caused all the trouble, was shot in the leg and jailed in a race riot which broke out here late in the afternoon, growing out of the negro shoving a white woman off the sidewalk.

The trouble started when a man named Swazer, was passing down the street with a young woman. They met Ed Ruse, a negro, who pushed the woman off the sidewalk into the mud. Swazer started after Ruse and backed him up against a buggy in the street. A bystander, who saw the trouble, grabbed the negro about the arms while Swazer administered a terrific beating.

Ruse was walking the streets of Coweta looking for the man who held him while he was thrashed. He became boisterous when City Marshal Virgil Hurt told him to give up his knife and go home and shut up. The negro replied with an oath and threatened to cut the marshari's throat. Hurt then shot Ruse in the leg. Ed Suddeth, anther negro, heard the shooting, ran out of a house across the street, and began firing. The negro was grabbed and hustled to a water tank on the railroad right of way, a rope placed around his neck and though he begged pitifully for mercy, was strung up to the crossbeam. While he was dangling in the air, yet alive, cooler heads in the crowd pleaded that he be cut down and promised that he would be convicted and legally hanged within 30 days. He was then cut down and hustled to the lockup.

Deputy Sheriff Fowler started to take Suddeth to Wagoner in an automobile, but his car was stopped by a mob and the negro was riddled with bullets.

Coweta is sleeping on its arms and has sent to Muskogee for aid. There is a shortage of Winchesters and ammunition in the town and a supply has been rushed in.

Muskogee, Oct. 23.—Company F. of the state militia stationed at Muskogee has been ordered to Coweta by District Judge R. C. Allen.

GERMAN QUICKLY AMERICANIZED

Boy Just Arrived Stops at Best Hotels, Forges Checks and Buys Horses on Hot Air.

Muskogee, Ok., Oct. 23.—Herman Stettmeyer, a german, 16 years old, is in jail here a victim of "get rich quick Wallingford" stories and insufficient knowledge of American business methods. Stettmeyer has no money, but he came to Muskogee, stopped at an expensive hotel, gave forged checks for his hotel bills besides giving a bad check for $2,000 worth of horses which he purposed to place on his ranch in Texas. It is believed the boy is mentally incompetent and as only small checks were cashed it is not likely he will be prosecuted.

MANY ENTER MUSIC CONTEST

ALL EXPECT PRIZE FOR MISSOURI STATE SONG.

Every Kind of Composition From Oratorio to Ragtime is Offered by Ambitious Writers.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 23.—In the office of Prof. W. H. Pommer, head of the music department of the University of Missouri, is a waist high stack of manuscripts, some six hundred in number, and to the stack daily are being added fifteen to fifty more manuscripts. And each one of the manuscripts contains music which the composer believes will net him $500. The music is to go with the words of the Missouri state song, which was selected last spring.

Just now there is a competition for the music. It opened September 30 last and will close November 30—the reward to the winner is $500, half of the $1,000 offered by Gov. Hadley last year for the song.

There is an offering from every state and territory in the United States.

As to the music itself, Prof. Pommer has not commenced to go through it carefully, but he has found every known kind of composition. A ragtime theme came in beside an oratorio arrangement, a complete orchestral score, quartet, sextet, trios, duets, lines of simple melody and others for full chorus singing—the music runs the entire gamut of the known and unknown.

Within the next week or ten days Prof. Pommer will start to go over the music, choosing from the offering those that show possible use with the words. He will narrow the output down about half and as as quickly as possible, probably not before January, he will call a meeting of the five judges. They will select then the prize-winning composition.

GIRLS EARNING WAY IN COLLEGE

Fourteen at University of Missouri Entertain Children While Parents Are Away From Home.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 23.—An education and a living at the same time is a hard enough proposition for most men students to make and for co-eds, even harder. But fourteen girls at the University of Missouri are making their way through four years of school here telling stories and playing games. True, they do not live like their more fortunate sisters, and it is the boast of two of them that they spend only $10 a month each.

The fourteen girls earn fifteen cents an hour each by entertaining the children of faculty members whenever the wives are away from home. It's nice, easy work, say the girls, and Miss Ester Chapman, head of the Y. W. C. A. employment bureau, says she is unable to supply the demand for such entertainers.

MARZYCK SEEN IN ST. JOSEPH?

Cigar Maker With Whom He worked Said to Have Been Threatened for Causing Arrest.

St. Joseph, Oct. 23.—Following the dispatch of detectives on sudden and mysterious errands here the police reluctantly admitted that they were acting on information to the effect that Charles Marzyck, the ex-convict suspected of the murder of the Showman family at Ellsworth, Kan., early in the week, had been in the city within the last 24 hours. The police declined to give out the source of their information.

William Bug, a cigar manufacturer for whom Marzyck at one time worked, and on whom he forged a number of checks, declined to discuss the case and also refused to confirm a report that he had received threats from Marzyck for causing his arrest.

Fire on German Ship.

Kiel, Germany, Oct. 23.—Fire broke out on the German cruiser Von Der Tann. It started in the tow, oil and alcohol storeroom and burned furiously for half an hour. ACCUSED PASTOR NOT TO RESIGN

Rev. Richeson in Jail for Murder Will Not Give Up His Pastorate.

POISON RECEPTACLE NOT FOUND

Sister of Accused Man Arrives But is Not Permitted to See Him—Plenty of Money for Defense.

Boston, Oct. 23.—In their efforts to clear up the circumstances of the death of Avis Linnell, the Hyannis Sunday school teacher and music student, with whose murder the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson is charged, the police have been unable thus far, it is said, to find the receptacle which held the poison.

Inquiry revealed the fact that the medical examiner's assistant examined the bathrobe worn at the time of her death carefully, and he declares there was nothing in the pockets of the garment.

The morning worship at the Immanuel Baptist church of Cambridge was without reference of any kind to the plight of the congregation's pastor, Mr. Richeson. It had been reported that Mr. Richeson would resign his pastorate, but no letter from him was forthcoming. Dr. George Crosa, who occupied the pulpit, carried his hearers along lines of thought entirely removed from any reference to Mr. Richeson's case.

The opinion that Mr. Richeson will not resign his pastorate or issue any statement to the public or to his parishioners, was expressed by his counsel, Philip R. Dunbar. Mr. Dunbar said he had advised the minister to make no statement of any kind, and further, that he would advise against Mr. Richeson giving his resignation.

Miss L. V. Richeson, a sister of the imprisoned clergyman, arrived here from Saranac Lake, N. Y., where she has been engaged as a hospital nurse. She expressed complete confidence in her brother's innocence. It was her earnest wish, naturally, to see him at the earliest possible moment, but she found prison regulations too strict to overcome.

Miss Richeson is understood to be a guest at the Brookline home of M. Grant Edmands, the father of Miss Violet Edmands, who was to have been married to Mr. Richeson October 31.

Miss Edmands is said to be ill as a result of the shock which she received when the clergyman, her fiance, was taken to jail.

Mr. Edmands refused to say whether the wealth of his daughter or of himself is behind the retention of counsel for Mr. Richeson. It has been said that Miss Edmands assured the minister before parting with him Friday that he could command all her property, if necessary, for his defense. The young woman is heiress to several hundred thousand dollars and her father is generally reputed to be a millionaire.

NEBRASKA LYNCHERS TO PRISON

Say They Had Only Planned to Frighten Young Ranchman Out of Country.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 23.—Harry Heath, George and Alma Weed and Kenneth Murphy, the four young men convicted in Cherry county, Neb., of the lynching of Charles Sellers, a neighboring ranchman, and sentenced to life imprisonment, have been taken to the state penitentiary.

Kenneth Murphy, 18 years old, was acting as spokesman for the lynchers. He said it was not the plan to kill Sellers, but to frighten him so badly he would leave the country. They left him suspended from the telegraph pole too long however and he was dead when they lowered him. Murphy exonerated his sister, Eunice Murphy, of any connection with the crime. Murphy says Sellers had threatened his sister.

Eggs at 20 Cents Each.

Tuscon, Ariz., Oct. 23.—Eggs are selling at 20 cents each in Guaymas and other foods are correspondingly high, according to advices which have just reached Tucson. The high price of eggs is caused by the drowning of many chickens in the recent floods and because of damage to transportation facilities.

New Revolt in Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 23.—A member of the staff of Gov. Gonzales, who is in the city from Chihuahua, declared that the date is set for the outbreak of the Reyes revolution in Mexico. It is alleged documents have been seized revealing the fact, and the outbreak is to occur in the state of Tamaulipas.

Chinese Army Defeated.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The main army of the Chinese government under War Minister Yin Tchang, 20,000 men, was totally defeated at Kwang Shui, Nu Peh province. The rebel army of 15,000 under Li Yueng captured artillery, baggage trains and ammunition of the imperials, who retreated into the mountains.

Does It Pay?

TO ADVERTISE

Well, Rather!

(From the Chicago Record-Herald.)

The hen that cackles loudest may not lay the largest eggs;
The mule that kicks the hardest may not have the longest legs;
The tree that is the tallest may not bear the sweetest fruit,
And the girl who is the fairest may not wear the smallest boot.

The man whose brow is highest may not always know the most;
The hero who is bravest may not make the loudest boast;
The arm that is the strongest may not have the farthest reach,
And the man who talks the longest may not make the finest speech.

The rose that is the reddest may not have the sweetest scent;
The man whose strut is proudest may not be most prominent;
The woman who has jewels that she measures by the peck
May not have the slimmest fingers or the most delightful neck.

The man who works the hardest may not draw the highest pay;
The one with deepest knowledge may not have the most to say;
But the man who is most modest gets the last seat in the rear,
And the one who blows his bugle is the one whom people hear.

BROKE JAIL AND RELEASED FIVE

Wm. La Trasse, Train Robber, Escapes From Prison by Strategy.

JAILER BEATEN UNCONSCIOUS

Trusty Unlocked Cell Room and Let All Out—Planned by Most Desperate Criminal Ever in Wyandotte Jail.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 23.—Six prisoners escaped from the Wyandotte county jail in Kansas City, Kan. The leader was William La Trasse, a professional highway robber and train robber, who had been found guilty and was awaiting sentence to the penitentiary for the robbery of passengers on a Missouri Pacific train between Leavenworth and Kansas City, Kan. last Christmas night.

The prisoners who escaped, besides La Trasse, were John Ryan, serving six months for the robbery of the postoffice in Rosedale a year ago. His term would have expired in January.

Ryan was rearrested at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Ryan.

Robert Beaty, a house robber, who was captured June 11 by two newspaper reporters as he was escaping from a house he had robbed and was under sentence of 22 years.

William Harrington, a negro, six feet, three inches tall. He was caught May 19 by John McNarry, fire chief, in his home.

George Thomas, who was caught robbing a house at Sixth and Quindaro Boulevard and was awaiting trial.

John Lynch, convicted with Ryan for the robbery of the Rosedale postoffice and serving a sentence of six months.

The only man besides the prisoners who was in the jail at the time of the escape was Squire Lee, the night jailer. It was his custom to let the prisoners exercise in the "bull pen" until 9'oclock each night and then he would throw the keys of the cells through the bars to John Ryan, the trusted prisoner, who would lock the prisoners in their cells and throw the keys out to Lee.

At 9'oclock Lee, threw in the keys as usual and went to the office and sat down. Ryan instead of locking the five prisoners in their cells unlocked the door between the bull pen and the corridor and the prisoners filed out there and hid behind a corner where Lee could not see them.

Lee, thinking that all the prisoners were in their cells, unlocked the door of the corridor and went in. As soon as he entered the six prisoners leaped upon him and beat him into insensibility in the darkness. The six of them went through the corridor door out into the hall and through a door into an alley.

Every town within a radius of 100 miles of Kansas City has been notified of the escape.

La Trasse is one of the most desperate criminals ever confined in the jail in Kansas City, Kan. Two weeks ago his cell was searched and a saw and revolver were found. He has served a term of five years in the Missouri penitentiary at Jefferson City. He is wanted in Chicago for complicity in the murder of a saloon keeper and in St. Joseph, Mo., where he escaped from jail.

Hunnewell Men are Heard.

Hunnewell, Kan., Oct. 23.—Judge A. M. Jackson of Winfield, who has been retained by the four councilmen of Hunnewell to defend them in the case to oust them from office, will take depositions for the defense. These and the ones taken last week by Judge Lindsey for the state will be presented to the supreme court when the case is called for hearing.

Jail for the Pot Hunters.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 23.—Prof. L. L. Dyche, state fish and game warden, sent out a notice to the deputy game wardens urging them to keep a sharp lookout for "pot" hunters. Reports coming to Topeka recently from various sections of the state indicate that some hunters are not obeying the law at all regarding the shooting of ducks.

Another Banker Paroled.

Leavenworth, Kan., Oct. 23.—J. Howard Phillips, a member of the "bankers' colony" at the federal penitentiary, has left the prison on parole. Phillips' parole was granted before John R. Walsh's with those of Frank H. Nicolai, H. T. Wells and Henry G. Doll.

Frenchman Skips With $409,000.

Paris, Oct. 23.—The police of New York have been asked to look for Pierre Lepreux, chief of the loan department of the Suez Canal company, who is charged with absconding with $200,000 in cash and $200,000 worth of canal securities.

Bucking Horse Caused Death.

Lawton, Ok., Oct. 23.—An attempt to ride a bucking broncho proved fatal to Oliver H. Snider, a young farmer boy. Following the accident, Snider remounted his steed and rode 15 miles home.

WHY HE LIKES WATERMELONS

Colored Man Discourses Philosophically on Those Soothing, Cooling and Filling Fruits.

A well-known lawyer, who is spending his vacation at home doing nothing, or, as he says, "loafing with all his might," tells of a talk he had recently with his colored hired man.

Going to the stable he found John with his face buried in a big piece of watermelon.

"Why is it, John, that colored people are so fond of watermelons?"

"I don't know," he replied, grinning, "'less its jes' because dey's people. I knows a heap o' white folks 'at likes 'em, too. I likes 'em 'cause dey's soothin', an' coolin', an' fillin', an' I spose dey 'similates dat a-way wid white folks. I reckon dey ain' much difference 'tween white folks and cullud folks' insides."

"Perhaps not. Do you consider the watermelon a fruit or a vegetable?"

"Well, now, it's jus' like this: Watermelons ain' no vegetable, cause dey won't stan' cookin' like cabbage nor cannin' like beans, nor dryin' like red peppers, an' dey ain' no fruit, 'cause dey doan grow on trees an' you can't put 'em in your pockets like apples and peaches. Looks to me like dey's jes' watermelons."

"How would it do to call it the fruit of a cucurbitaceous vine, distinguished for interior pulpiness and copiousness of watery juice?"

"Dat's it, 'zactly," said John; "dat's jus' what I was goin' to say."—Indianapolis News.

SEEMED TO FILL THE BILL

Young Suffragette Appeared to the Youth's Mother to Be Suitable as His Wife.

The young suffragette who had insisted on marrying the young man with whom she had fallen in love, approached the young man's mother in fear and trembling.

"Can you support my son," asked that lady sternly, "in the style to which he has been accustomed?"

"I cannot, madam,. He will have to supply all the cash."

"Um. Are you able, in spite of your advanced views, to keep him badly in debt?"

"I am. That is my specialty."

"Do you know how to nurse him if he should fall ill?"

"Haven't the remotest idea. My childhood has been spent in attending cauuses."

"Ha! Will you guarantee to kiss him good-by every morning?"

"If I happen to remember it—but I can't guarantee anything."

"What time do you expect to come in at night?"

"O, anywhere from 12 to 3 in the morning."

"Do you rehearse your speeches at home?"

"Yes, as a rule."

The mother's face relaxed.

"We must be cautious in these matters," she said sweetly. "But, on the whole, I think you will do."—Life.

Then and Now.

Prior to the last 15 years, by the time people had attained their first quarter of a century, they considered themselves pretty much formed as to physical and mental characteristics. If they were ambitious and energetic they perhaps carried on some kind of exercise for their physical well-being, and guarded against mental deterioration as they advanced in years by occasionally taking up new studies or reviewing old ones; as a dear old lady of my acquaintance at the age of eighty-nine began to review her algebra to keep her mind active.

Now everything is changed. We cannot settle down comfortably in the thought of anything in the regular routine of life which we may not be called upon to alter at a moment's notice. Most of us have found that few of our established habits are right and that unless we are willing to be left hopelessly behind our associates we must learn over again all that we acquired in infancy, and that has since become a matter of automatic action.—The Atlantic.

Shine With Every Drink.

There have been in the history of barber shops such plans as "A shave and a shine all for a dime," "A haircut and a shine free," but it was left for a negro barber shop at 18 Ivy street to give a free shoe shine when a drink was paid for. That is, it was a Sunday blind tiger in which Will Strong, a bootblack, sold liquor and then gave his customer a free shine.

The police had suspected the barber shop for some time and on last Sunday they made a raid and found a large lot of whisky in pint bottles. Will Strong was in charge and was running a bootblack stand. He claimed that another negro had brought the whisky in to the shop without his knowing it. The Recorder sent Will Strong to the chain gang for thirty days.—Atlanta Constitution.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and failing hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

DIED IN OKLAHOMA.

Mother of Mrs. Howard McCommon of This City Died Sunday Night.

Mrs. Howard McCommon received a message Monday morning conveying the news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jester, in Claremore, Okla., Sunday night, October 22. Mrs. Jester went to Claremore about two months ago to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. F. H. Boyd. About a month ago she fell and broke one of her limbs. The shock was too great for one of her years to overcome, and she grew gradually weaker until her death.

Mr. and Mrs. McCommon left Monday evening for Marshall, Mo., where the burial will take place Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jester's former home was at Marshall, and her husband's death occurred there.

Mrs. Jester was 85 years old last April. She had been making her home in Maryville with her daughter for three or four years, and she has been in failing health for some time. She was born in Madison county, Kentucky, and was a daughter of John Saunders, a pioneer merchant of Buchanan county. Her brother, James H. Saunders of this city, is one of the pioneer merchants of Nodaway county. She went to Buchanan county when a child and was married in that county to her husband, S. M. Jester, who settled in Marshall, Saline county. She is survived by one son, John B. Jester of Marshall; Mrs. Howard McCommon of this city, Mrs. J. D. Lotsteich of Butler, Mo.; Mrs. T. R. Bell of Marshall; Mrs. James O'Dell of Natton, Mo., and Mrs. F. H. Boyd of Claremore, Okla. One son, J. A. Jester, who was a well known merchant of Maryville, died a number of years ago.

PROSPERITY IS SHOWN.

Missouri Banks, According to Swanger, Are Growing Stronger.

State Bank Commissioner John E. Swanger last week completed the compilation of banks and trust companies of Missouri under the call made on these institutions for the figures at the close of business September 1. He makes interesting comparisons with the statements of these banks and trust companies made on November 10, 1910, and finds that there is much reason for congratulation on the vast improvement indicated.

Among other things noted is an increase in loans, discounts and investments and an increase in individual deposits which he thinks is a remarkable showing of business prosperity and growth. Savings deposits also show a most gratifying increase. Another indication that attests the growth of good banking in Missouri is a great decrease in overdrafts, which Commissioner Swanger declares is in line with the showing made by his comparisons.

A most remarkable condition is shown in the statement that not a dollar has been lost to depositors in state banks and trust companies in Missouri during the past four years. Commissioner Swanger says that this record is unexcelled by any state in the Union.

FOLK FOR PRIMARY

SANDERS WANTS STATE COMMITTEE TO MAKE CALL.

Leaders Express Confidence That Result Would Justify Claim That Missouri is for Folk.

Joseph W. Folk, in a signed statement issued Saturday by Lon Sanders, president of the Missouri Democratic league, the Folk-for-president organization, practically insisted on a primary convention to settle beyond any doubt the preference of the Missouri voters for Speaker Champ Clark and the former governor.

The Folk plan contemplates a legal primary convention, to be held throughout the state, as early as possible after the meeting of the national Democratic committee on January 8, 1912.

"We not only welcome," says Lon Sanders, in his written statement, "but urge the state committee to act promptly after January 8, when the national committee meets, and at the earliest practical date thereafter issue the call for the state convention, or primary, to select delegates to the national convention."

The Folk leaders express the greatest confidence in the outcome of such a contest. While they contend that the indorsement given Folk at the convention a year ago is binding, they say that the Democratic voters of Missouri are overwhelmingly for Folk for president, and that the truth of this view will be manifested when the convention is held.

Objection is made to a primary election in December on the ground that it would be impossible to conduct such an election or convention. There is no law under which such a contest could be legally held, say the Folk adherents. It would afford a chance for ballot box stuffing, and could not be held under proper police regulations, and no legal expression would result from such a test of strength.

After the national committee meets early in January, however, and authorizes the calling of conventions to instruct the delegates to the national convention, the chairman of the Democratic state committee could call the convention, and it could be held at any time after that date. While such conventions are not usually held until May or June, say the Folk leaders, there would be no objection to the calling of such a convention in February or later.

DR. THOMAS LAFAYETTE OF HOPKINS A CENTENARIAN.

WOULDN'T LIVE LIFE OVER

Anxious to Solve the Mysteries Beyond the Grave—Has Lived in County Since 1888.

One hundred years ago last Friday Dr. Thomas Lafayette of Hopkins was born at Leon, France. His father died eight days before he was born and he was reared by his grandfather, Joseph F. Lafayette, an own cousin of the Marquis de Lafayette, who, history tells us, rendered most valuable service to the colonies during the revolutionary war. Dr. Lafayette remembers well many visits of the marquis to the home of his grandfather.

The senior Lafayette gave his grandson the advantage of the best schools of France and the young man later entered the Paris Academy of Medicine, where he spent seven years, after which he practiced for ten years in the hospitals of Paris and other leading European cities.

In 1850 Dr. Lafayette came to the United States, locating at Reid's Landing, an Indian mission in Minnesota, where he successfully practiced medimine until the opening of the civil war. At the first call to arms he enlisted with the Fourth Minnesota infantry, being assistant regimental surgeon with rank of captain, and took part in many of the leading battles. He served until the close of the war, receiving an honorable discharge in 1866. He was married in 1858 to Miss Hermine Bifault of St. Francis, Can., who died forty years ago. To this union were born three children—Miss Josephine Lafayette, who now resides at Wayland, N. Y.; Fordyce Lafayette, a practicing physician of Rochester, N. Y., and Thomas Lafayette, Jr., from whom the doctor has not heard for many years and for whom he is constantly worrying. When last heard from Thomas Lafayette was trading in land and cattle in Canada, being reputed wealthy. He mysteriously disappeared a quarter of a century ago and nothing has since been heard of him.

At the close of the war, Dr. Lafayette located at Marrston, Minn., and from there went to St. Louis, where he remained for several years practicing his profession. From there he went to Joplin, Mo., where the cyclone of 1883 did so much damage, among the property lost being the office of Dr. Lafayette, as well as his comprehensive library. After this loss, he made a trip to France, where he remained for a year. On returning to the United States he located at the French colony, near Corning, Ia., and spent considerable money and time improving the conditions existing among his people there at that time. From the colony he came to Hopkins, locating here in 1888.

Dr. Lafayette was unhappily married here some fifteen years or more ago, and was soon afterward granted a divorce by the circuit court of Nodaway county. Since then he has lived alone, with the exception of a housekeeper, in the attractive little cottage that stands just west of the Burlington depot and which is frequently admired by passengers traveling through this city.

Politically, the doctor is a Republican, but of late years has taken no part in politics, and has probably voted his last time. He is the youngest of a family of five children, his two sisters and two brothers having long since crossed the line that divides time from eternity. As to religion, he has none. He was reared a Roman Catholic but long since gave up that faith. He believes in no hell and no devil, declaring that ignorance is the greatest devil.

"Equal freedom, equal duty, equal rights and equal salvation" is his motto, and his theory is that everybody will be saved. Despite his hundred years the doctor is still quite active, both in mind and body, and still does an office practice. He is a great reader and is fully posted on current events. He has made six trips to Europe since he first came to America and has been in several severe storms. He is temperate in all things—has never used tobacco in any form and never drinks anything stronger than wine.

Dr. Lafayette is different from the average human inasmuch as he says he would not want to live his life over again even if it were possible. He is ready and anxious to die—anxious to solve the mysteries beyond the grave. He has given his life to healing the sick and rests in the belief that "he who serves humanity most, serves God best," and is not afraid to die.—St. Joseph Gazette.

MRS. MARGARET PARTRIDGE DIED AT RIPE OLD AGE.

HAD LIVED HERE 51 YEARS

Four Children Survive, With the Youngest of Whom She Had Made Her Home Twenty-Five Years.

The funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Partridge, mother of J. Lincoln Partridge, living seven miles northeast of Maryville, who died at the home of her son Friday evening, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Myrtle Tree church, and were largely attended.

Mrs. Partridge was 89 years old at the time of her death and she had enjoyed a good degree of health until her fatal illness came nine weeks ago. She was able to visit her children and among her neighbors and to attend church regularly, and took much interest in life. Paralysis was the cause of her death.

Mrs. Partridge is survived by four children, W. J. Partridge of Wilbur, Wash.; G. W. Partridge of Cherokee, Okla.; Mrs. H. T. Wray of Pickering, and her youngest son, J. L. Partridge, with whom she had made her home for twenty-five years. She was the mother of ten children, two of whom died in infancy in Illinois, before the family moved to Missouri. The other children deceased are Mrs. Adaline Trusty, the mother of Grant Trusty of this city, who died at her home, east of Maryville; Mrs. Margaret VanBuren of Pickering and Mrs. George Ingersoll, who died at her home in Grand Junction, Col.

Mrs. Partridge was born in Bracken county, Kentucky, September 24, 1822. When she was 9 years old her parents moved to Illinois, in Edgar county, where she grew to womanhood, and was married to John R. Partridge on the 13th of February, 1839. In 1885 the family moved to Gentry county, Missouri, and remained there until 1860, when they came to Nodaway county and settled on a farm in the neighborhood in which they died. Mr. Partridge's death occurred sixteen years ago.

Mrs. Partridge was a consistent member of the Protestant M. E. church, and was a member of the Harmony church for many years.

George W. Partridge of Cherokee, Okla., a son of the deceased, arrived Monday noon, also Carl Wray of Guilford, who is a grandson, and F. E. Wood of Seward, Neb., a nephew.

Were in Time for Sunday School.

Judge Shamberger and family, who live twelve miles south of the city, came to Maryville Sunday morning to attend Sunday school at the First M. E. church, and were there when the school opened at 9:30 o'clock. Of course, Judge Shamberger has an automobile, but the fact that he was able to arrive in time for Sunday school in company with his family is a rebuke to the heands of many families in Maryville.

TO ABOLISH TREATING.

The Chicago Record-Herald prints the following editorial:

"That the treating habit is one of the causes of excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors in this country has long been apparent to all who are interested in the drink question. It is, therefore, a matter of public concern that the National German-American Alliance has adopted a resolution calling upon its executive committee to present to the next biennial convention a practical plan of abolishing the custom of treating at public bars.

"The treating habit in most cases is born of generosity or a desire to appear generous. It results in several men taking several drinks each because each thinks he cannot afford to be thought mean or stingy. Many saloon keepers encourage the practice, believing it brings revenue, by 'setting up' a round of drinks occasionally 'on the bar.' Yet there are men, not teetotalers, who avoid drinking in saloons because of the treating habit.

"To bring into use the 'Dutch treat,' as the alliance proposes, may be difficult, but it ought to be brought into use if possible. In Europe the custom is for each man to pay for what he drinks only, and as a result intoxication in public houses is rare."

This is a wise move on the part of the National German-American Alliance. More power to that organization's elbow in its practical effort at reform.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Maryville People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy and other serious troubles. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Maryville proof:

G. W. Hempstead, East First street, Maryville, Mo., says: "When suffering from an extreme sensitiveness in the small of my back, I was advised by a friend to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and they lived up to representations. I have never had any trouble from my back or kidneys since."

Alderman's Greatest Sale of Fine Millinery

The story of this sale is quickly told. It is time for us to reduce our Millinery stock and it is to our advantage to reduce it while there is still a good demand. For we can then clean it up quickly and be in a position to make bargains that will prove intensely interesting to everyone.

Every woman should know, by this time, of our new system of buying and selling Hats. Briefly it is this: For the first time we bought all of our Hats direct from the prominent originators, mainly from New York and Chicago. Our reason for doing this was to get better styles and better values than formerly, since the designers who live and work in the style centers are undoubtedly in a better position to give newer and more up-to-the-minute styles than any trimmer which we could obtain. We got better values by having a standing order and by eliminating at least one, and in many cases two, middle profits.

This innovation has proven a hgge success. Never before have we, or any other Millinery shop in Northwest Missouri, had such an elaborate showing of really new and original Hats. And we were able to price them at least 10 per cent lower than ordinarily.

Every Hat in our stock is reduced in price for this sale. None are held back. Take your choice from our complete stock. The regular prices are on the Hats; the show cards tell the reduced prices.

At regular prices our Hats are not equaled, either as to style or value. At reduced prices they are bargains such sa have rarely been offered.

Come at once and make your selections. Do not delay.

MURDER STARTS RACE TROUBLE

City Attorney of Coweta, Ok., Killed and Two Others Shot.

MUSKOGEE MILITIA CALLED OUT

Negro Pushed White Woman Off Sidewalk and Trouble Commenced—City Short of Guns and Ammunition.

Coweta, Ok., Oct. 23.—D. J. Beavers, city attorney of Coweta, was shot through the head and instantly killed. Steller Thompson and Carmen Oliver, two white men, were shot through the body and may die, Ed suddeth, negro, was shot, arrested strung up to water tank, cut down, jailed, started out of town by officers and shot to death by a mob, while Ed Ruse another black, who caused all the trouble, was shot in the leg and jailed in a race riot which broke out here late in the afternoon, growing out of the negro shoving a white woman off the sidewalk.

The trouble started when a man named Swazer, was passing down the street with a young woman. They met Ed Ruse, a negro, who pushed the woman off the sidewalk into the mud. Swazer started after Ruse and backed him up against a buggy in the street. A bystander, who saw the trouble, grabbed the negro about the arms while Swazer administered a terrific beating.

Ruse was walking the streets of Coweta looking for the man who held him while he was thrashed. He became boisterous when City Marshal Virgil Hurt told him to give up his knife and go home and shut up. The negro replied with an oath and threatened to cut the marshal's throat. Hurt then shot Ruse in the leg. Ed Suddeth, anther negro, heard the shooting, ran out of a house across the street, and began firing. The negro was grabbed and hustled to a water tank on the railroad right of way, a rope placed around his neck and though he begged pitifully for mercy, was strung up to the crossbeam. While he was dangling in the air, yet alive, cooler heads in the crowd pleaded that he be cut down and promised that he would be convicted and legally hanged within 30 days. He was then cut down and hustled to the lockup.

Deputy Sheriff Fowler started to take Suddeth to Wagoner in an automobile, but his car was stopped by a mob and the negro was riddled with bullets.

Coweta is sleeping on its arms and has sent to Muskogee for aid. There is a shortage of Winchesters and ammunition in the town and a supply has been rushed in.

Muskogee, Oct. 23.—Company F. of the state militia stationed at Muskogee has been ordered to Coweta by District Judge R. C. Allen.

GERMAN QUICKLY AMERICANIZED

Boy Just Arrived Stops at Best Hotels, Forges Checks and Buys Horses on Hot Air.

Muskogee, Ok., Oct. 23.—Herman Stettmeyer, a german, 16 years old, is in jail here a victim of "get rich quick Wallingford" stories and insufficient knowledge of American business methods. Stettmeyer has no money, but he came to Muskogee, stopped at an expensive hotel, gave forged checks for his hotel bills besides giving a bad check for $2,000 worth of horses which he purposed to place on his ranch in Texas. It is believed the boy is mentally incompetent and as only small checks were cashed it is not likely he will be prosecuted.

MANY ENTER MUSIC CONTEST

ALL EXPECT PRIZE FOR MISSOURI STATE SONG.

Every Kind of Composition From Oratorio to Ragtime is Offered by Ambitious Writers.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 23.—In the office of Prof. W. H. Pommer, head of the music department of the University of Missouri, is a waist high stack of manuscripts, some six hundred in number, and to the stack daily are being added fifteen to fifty more manuscripts. And each one of the manuscripts contains music which the composer believes will net him $500. The music is to go with the words of the Missouri state song, which was selected last spring.

Just now there is a competition for the music. It opened September 30 last and will close November 30—the reward to the winner is $500, half of the $1,000 offered by Gov. Hadley last year for the song.

There is an offering from every state and territory in the United States.

As to the music itself, Prof. Pommer has not commenced to go through it carefully, but he has found every known kind of composition. A ragtime theme came in beside an oratorio arrangement, a complete orchestral score, quartet, sextet, trios, duets, lines of simple melody and others for full chorus singing—the music runs the entire gamut of the known and unknown.

Within the next week or ten days Prof. Pommer will start to go over the music, choosing from the offering those that show possible use with the words. He will narrow the output down about half and as as quickly as possible, probably not before January, he will call a meeting of the five judges. They will select then the prize-winning composition.

GIRLS EARNING WAY IN COLLEGE

Fourteen at University of Missouri Entertain Children While Parents Are Away From Home.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 23.—An education and a living at the same time is a hard enough proposition for most men students to make and for co-eds, even harder. But fourteen girls at the University of Missouri are making their way through four years of school here telling stories and playing games. True, they do not live like their more fortunate sisters, and it is the boast of two of them that they spend only $10 a month each.

The fourteen girls earn fifteen cents an hour each by entertaining the children of faculty members whenever the wives are away from home. It's nice, easy work, say the girls, and Miss Ester Chapman, head of the Y. W. C. A. employment bureau, says she is unable to supply the demand for such entertainers.

MARZYCK SEEN IN ST. JOSEPH?

Cigar Maker With Whom He worked Said to Have Been Threatened for Causing Arrest.

St. Joseph, Oct. 23.—Following the dispatch of detectives on sudden and mysterious errands here the police reluctantly admitted that they were acting on information to the effect that Charles Marzyck, the ex-convict suspected of the murder of the Showman family at Ellsworth, Kan., early in the week, had been in the city within the last 24 hours. The police declined to give out the source of their information.

William Bug, a cigar manufacturer for whom Marzyck at one time worked, and on whom he forged a number of checks, declined to discuss the case and also refused to confirm a report that he had received threats from Marzyck for causing his arrest.

ACCUSED PASTOR NOT TO RESIGN

Rev. Richeson in Jail for Murder Will Not Give Up His Pastorate.

POISON RECEPTACLE NOT FOUND

Sister of Accused Man Arrives But is Not Permitted to See Him—Plenty of Money for Defense.

Boston, Oct. 23.—In their efforts to clear up the circumstances of the death of Avis Linnell, the Hyannis Sunday school teacher and music student, with whose murder the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson is charged, the police have been unable thus far, it is said, to find the receptacle which held the poison.

Inquiry revealed the fact that the medical examiner's assistant examined the bathrobe worn at the time of her death carefully, and he declares there was nothing in the pockets of the garment.

The morning worship at the Immanuel Baptist church of Cambridge was without reference of any kind to the plight of the congregation's pastor, Mr. Richeson. It had been reported that Mr. Richeson would resign his pastorate, but no letter from him was forthcoming. Dr. George Cross, who occupied the pulpit, carried his hearers along lines of thought entirely removed from any reference to Mr. Richeson's case.

The opinion that Mr. Richeson will not resign his pastorate or issue any statement to the public or to his parishioners, was expressed by his counsel, Philip R. Dunbar. Mr. Dunbar said he had advised the minister to make no statement of any kind, and further, that he would advise against Mr. Richeson giving his resignation.

Miss L. V. Richeson, a sister of the imprisoned clergyman, arrived here from Saranac Lake, N. Y., where she has been engaged as a hospital nurse. She expressed complete confidence in her brother's innocence. It was her earnest wish, naturally, to see him at the earliest possible moment, but she found prison regulations too strict to overcome.

Miss Richeson is understood to be a guest at the Brookline home of M. Grant Edmands, the father of Miss Violet Edmands, who was to have been married to Mr. Richeson October 31.

Miss Edmands is said to be ill as a result of the shock which she received when the clergyman, her fiance, was taken to jail.

Mr. Edmands refused to say whether the wealth of his daughter or of himself is behind the retention of counsel for Mr. Richeson. It has been said that Miss Edmands assured the minister before parting with him Friday that he could command all her property, if necessary, for his defense. The young woman is heiress to several hundred thousand dollars and her father is generally reputed to be a millionaire.

NEBRASKA LYNCHERS TO PRISON

Say They Had Only Planned to Frighten Young Ranchman Out of Country.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 23.—Harry Heath, George and Alma Weed and Kenneth Murphy, the four young men convicted in Cherry county, Neb., of the lynching of Charles Sellers, a neighboring ranchman, and sentenced to life imprisonment, have been taken to the state penitentiary.

Kenneth Murphy, 18 years old, was acting as spokesman for the lynchers. He said it was not the plan to kill Sellers, but to frighten him so badly he would leave the country. They left him suspended from the telegraph pole too long however and he was dead when they lowered him. Murphy exonerated his sister, Eunice Murphy, of any connection with the crime. Murphy says Sellers had threatened his sister.

Eggs at 20 Cents Each.

Tuscon, Ariz., Oct. 23.—Eggs are selling at 20 cents each in Guaymas and other foods are correspondingly high, according to advices which have just reached Tucson. The high price of eggs is caused by the drowning of many chickens in the recent floods and because of damage to transportation facilities.

New Revolt in Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 23.—A member of the staff of Gov. Gonzales, who is in the city from Chihuahua, declared that the date is set for the outbreak of the Reyes revolution in Mexico. It is alleged documents have been seized revealing the fact, and the outbreak is to occur in the state of Tamaulipas.

Chinese Army Defeated.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The main army of the Chinese government under War Minister Yin Tchang, 20,000 men, was totally defeated at Kwang Shui, Nu Peh province. The rebel army of 15,000 under Li Yueng captured artillery, baggage trains and ammunition of the imperials, who retreated into the mountains.

Does It Pay?

TO ADVERTISE

Well, Rather!

(From the Chicago Record-Herald.)

The hen that cackles loudest may not lay the largest eggs;
The mule that kicks the hardest may not have the longest legs;
The tree that is the tallest may not bear the sweetest fruit,
And the girl who is the fairest may not wear the smallest boot.

The man whose brow is highest may not always know the most;
The hero who is bravest may not make the loudest boast;
The arm that is the strongest may not have the farthest reach,
And the man who talks the longest may not make the finest speech.

The rose that is the reddest may not have the sweetest scent;
The man whose stru' is proudest may not be most prominent;
The woman who has jewels that she measures by the peck
May not have the slimmest fingers or the most delightful neck.

The man who works the hardest may not draw the highest pay;
The one with deepest knowledge may not have the most to say;
But the man who is most modest gets the last seat in the rear,
And the one who blows his bugle is the one whom people hear.

BROKE JAIL AND RELEASED FIVE

Wm. La Trasse, Train Robber, Escapes From Prison by Strategy.

JAILER BEATEN UNCONSCIOUS

Trusty Unlocked Cell Room and Let All Out—Planned by Most Desperate Criminal Ever in Wyandotte Jail.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 23.—Six prisoners escaped from the Wyandotte county jail in Kansas City, Kan. The leader was William La Trasse, a professional highway robber and train robber, who had been found guilty and was awaiting sentence to the penitentiary for the robbery of passengers on a Missouri Pacific train between Leavenworth and Kansas City, Kan. last Christmas night.

The prisoners who escaped, besides La Trasse, were John Ryan, serving six months for the robbery of the postoffice in Rosedale a year ago. His term would have expired in January.

Ryan was rearrested at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Ryan.

Robert Beaty, a house robber, who was captured June 11 by two newspaper reporters as he was escaping from a house he had robbed and was under sentence of 22 years.

William Harrington, a negro, six feet, three inches tall. He was caught May 19 by John McNarry, fire chief, in his home.

George Thomas, who was caught robbing a house at Sixth and Quindaro Boulevard and was awaiting trial.

John Lynch, convicted with Ryan for the robbery of the Rosedale postoffice and serving a sentence of six months.

The only man besides the prisoners who was in the jail at the time of the escape was Squire Lee, the night jailer. It was his custom to let the prisoners exercise in the "bull pen" until 9 o'clock each night and then he would throw the keys of the cells through the bars to John Ryan, the trusted prisoner, who would lock the prisoners in their cells and throw the keys out to Lee.

At 9 o'clock Lee, threw in the keys as usual and went to the office and sat down. Ryan instead of locking the five prisoners in their cells unlocked the door between the bull pen and the corridor and the prisoners filed out there and hid behind a corner where Lee could not see them.

Lee, thinking that all the prisoners were in their cells, unlocked the door of the corridor and went in. As soon as he entered the six prisoners leaped upon him and beat him into insensibility in the darkness. The six of them went through the corridor door out into the hall and through a door into an alley.

Every town within a radius of 100 miles of Kansas City has been notified of the escape.

La Trasse is one of the most desperate criminals ever confined in the jail in Kansas City, Kan. Two weeks ago his cell was searched and a saw and revolver were found. He has served a term of five years in the Missouri penitentiary at Jefferson City. He is wanted in Chicago for complicity in the murder of a saloon keeper and in St. Joseph, Mo., where he escaped from jail.

Hunnewell Men are Heard.

Hunnewell, Kan., Oct. 23.—Judge A. M. Jackson of Winfield, who has been retained by the four councilmen of Hunnewell to defend them in the case to oust them from office, will take depositions for the defense. These and the ones taken last week by Judge Lindsey for the state will be presented to the supreme court when the case is called for hearing.

Jail for the Pot Hunters.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 23.—Prof. L. L. Dyche, state fish and game warden, sent out a notice to the deputy game wardens urging them to keep a sharp lookout for "pot" hunters. Reports coming to Topeka recently from various sections of the state indicate that some hunters are not obeying the law at all regarding the shooting of ducks.

Another Banker Paroled.

Leavenworth, Kan., Oct. 23.—J. Howard Phillips, a member of the "bankers' colony" at the federal penitentiary, has left the prison on parole. Phillips' parole was granted before John R. Walsh's with those of Frank H. Nicolai, H. T. Wells and Henry G. Doll.

Frenchman Skips With $400,000.

Paris, Oct. 23.—The police of New York have been asked to look for Pierre Lepreux, chief of the loan department of the Suez Canal company, who is charged with absconding with $200,000 in cash and $200,000 worth of canal securities.

Bucking Horse Caused Death.

Lawton, Ok., Oct. 23.—An attempt to ride a bucking broncho proved fatal to Oliver H. Snider, a young farmer boy. Following the accident, Snider remounted his steed and rode 15 miles home.

WHY HE LIKES WATERMELONS

Colored Man Discourses Philosophically on Those Soothing, Cooling and Filling Fruits.

A well-known lawyer, who is spending his vacation at home doing nothing, or, as he says, "loafing with all his might," tells of a talk he had recently with his colored hired man.

Going to the stable he found John with his face buried in a big piece of watermelon.

"Why is it, John, that colored people are so fond of watermelons?"

"I don't know," he replied, grinning, "less its jes' because dey's people. I knows a heap o' white folks 'at likes 'em, too. I likes 'em 'cause dey's soothin', an' coolin', an' fillin', an' I spose dey 'similates dat a-way wid white folks. I reckon dey ain' much difference 'tween white folks and cullud folks' insides."

"Perhaps not. Do you consider the watermelon a fruit or a vegetable?"

"Well, now, it's jus' like this: Watermelons ain' no vegetable, cause dey won't stan' cookin' like cabbage nor cannin' like beans, nor dryin' like red peppers, an' dey ain' no fruit, 'cause dey doan grow on trees an' you can't put 'em in your pockets like apples and peaches. Looks to me like dey's jes' watermelons."

"How would it do to call it the fruit of a cucurbitaceous vine, distinguished for interior pulpiness and copiousness of watery juice?"

"Dat's it, 'zactly," said John; "dat's jus' what I was goin' to say."—Indianapolis News.

SEEMED TO FILL THE BILL

Young Suffragette Appeared to the Youth's Mother to Be Suitable as His Wife.

The young suffragette who had insisted on marrying the young man with whom she had fallen in love, approached the young man's mother in fear and trembling.

"Can you support my son," asked that lady sternly, "in the style to which he has been accustomed?"

"I cannot, madam,. He will have to supply all the cash."

"Um. Are you able, in spite of your advanced views, to keep him badly in debt?"

"I am. That is my specialty."

"Do you know how to nurse him if he should fall ill?"

"Haven't the remotest idea. My childhood has been spent in attending cauc uses."

"Ha! Will you guarantee to kiss him good-by every morning?"

"If I happen to remember it—but I can't guarantee anything."

"What time do you expect to come in at night?"

"O, anywhere from 12 to 3 in the morning."

"Do you rehearse your speeches at home?"

"Yes, as a rule."

The mother's face relaxed.

"We must be cautious in these matters," she said sweetly. "But, on the whole, I think you will do."—Life.

Then and Now.

Prior to the last 15 years, by the time people had attained their first quarter of a century, they considered themselves pretty much formed as to physical and mental characteristics. If they were ambitious and energetic they perhaps carried on some kind of exercise for their physical well-being, and guarded against mental deterioration as they advanced in years by occasionally taking up new studies or reviewing old ones; as a dear old lady of my acquaintance at the age of eighty-nine began to review her algebra to keep her mind active.

Now everything is changed. We cannot settle down comfortably in the thought of anything in the regular routine of life which we may not be called upon to alter at a moment's notice. Most of us have found that few of our established habits are right and that unless we are willing to be left hopelessly behind our associates we must learn over again all that we acquired in infancy, and that has since become a matter of automatic action.—The Atlantic.

Shine With Every Drink.

There have been in the history of barber shops such plans as "A shave and a shine all for a dime," "A haircut and a shine free," but it was left for a negro barber shop at 18 Ivy street to give a free shoe shine when a drink was paid for. That is, it was a Sunday blind tiger in which Will Strong, a bootblack, sold liquor and then gave his customer a free shine.

The police had suspected the barber shop for some time and on last Sunday they made a raid and found a large lot of whisky in pint bottles. Will Strong was in charge and was running a bootblack stand. He claimed that another negro had brought the whisky in to the shop without his knowing it. The Recorder sent Will Strong to the chain gang for thirty days.—Atlanta Constitution.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and failing hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.
